Today on 20/12/2018, a personal counselling was organised by the career guidance cell at 11am. On the basis of the applications received four students were given personal career counselling. The personal counselling was convened by Hemanta Deka, convener of the Career guidance cell and Associate professor of Political Science department, Barabang college. The aim of the counselling was to provide solutions / resolve the queries of the applicants / students who had doubts regarding the choice of subjects. Liza Chakrabarty from HS year was in do uncertainty regarding the career options available for the subject Political Science as a major subject for graduation degree. Again similar request for clearing this doubt came from two other students namely Jesmin Akter and Tina Shree Talukdar for English and history respectively. One more application came from Bhaskar Deka for knowing about the low expensive courses available for students in higher education. For clearing their doubts, the convenor along with the members of the cell, Dr Bipul Kalita Associate professor of Assamese department and Dr. Nandita Goswami, Assistant professor Economics dept. were present and had requested / invited professors from concerned subjects i.e. Dr Anupam Dutta Associate professor for English dept. and Dr. Nandita Devi, Assistant professor, department of History. Mr. Hemanta Deka, Dr Anupam Dutta and Nandita Devi, then got started solving the queries, explaining all the possibilities of career options and scope of the subjects.

Bipul Kalita had also provided Bhaskar Deka an idea of the different courses one could pursue at low expenses. He gave him an idea about options available in technical line, such as applying of ITI or opting for distance courses, degree and certificate from IGNOU and KK handique open state open university.

Hemanta Deka and Nandita Devi had explained on the opportunities available for the Pol SC and his long students to opt for civil services or any other good competitive exams, they could also, in future aim for jobs in academic line. Dr. Anupam Dutta explained on how students with English as their subject in future can opt for journalism, become a writer or enter into academic line, become a translator. The counselling ended at a positive note.

INFORMATION RELATED TO SCHOLARSHIP SCHEMES BY GOVERNMENT

Venue: Auditorium

Date: 17th January 2019

An awareness programme is organized today on 17th January 2019 on information related to scholarship schemes by government. The resource person for the awareness programme is Pankaj Mazumdar junior assistant of Barbhag College felicitated with a phoolan gamusa. The resource person, starts by addressing the students and continues to explain the scholarship programmes students could avail for further education. There are various Government Scholarship Schemes for students in India. These are meant to provide benefits to the students coming from different backgrounds. The government scholarships are provided on the national and state-level basis. Some of the scholarships the students could apply for is mentioned by him are ISHAN UDAY – Special Scholarship Scheme for North-Eastern Region, pre and post matric scholarships for minorities, National Means Cum Merit Scholarship, Post Graduate Merit Scholarship for University Rank Holders, AICTE Pragati Scholarship for Girls, Pre-Matric and Post- Matric Scholarship to the Meritorious BPL Students under Chief Minister’s “Assam Bikash Yojana Scheme”. He also mentioned on the ways to avail these scholarships. For “IshanUday” for North Eastern Region launched by UGC which is Rs.5400/- per month for general degree course and Rs.7800/- per month for technical/medical/professional/paramedical courses is provided to the students. The scholar would be awarded from the date of joining the course as certified by the University/ Institution/ College. Applications are invited once in a year on the National e-Scholarship Portal of the Government of India for which a Short notification will also be uploaded on the UGC website. NSP Pre Matric Scholarships Scheme for Minorities 2022-23 is an initiative for the students of Class 1 to 10 of minority communities. The scholarship is being offered by the Ministry of Minority Affairs, Government of India. The scholarship is awarded for studies in India in a Government or private school including residential Government institutes and eligible private institutes that have been selected and notified by the respective State Government and Union Territory administration. The scheme aims to encourage parents of minority communities’ students to send their school-going children to school lighten their financial burden on school education and sustain their efforts to support their children to complete school education. Pankaj Majumdar then goes on to explaining all the scholarship schemes that could be made available by the students. Total number of Joined participants were 65.

Today a personal career counselling/meeting is organised at 12pm, on account of the 5 applications received by the Career Guidance Cell. The meeting was opened by Dr. Bipul Kalita and Dr. Nandita Goswami, Assistant professor of Economics department, also a member of the CQC cell was also present as a counsellor. The purpose of the meeting was to solve students' issues related to career options. Boudita Das of HS 2nd year was willing to know about the subjects available/provided by the college which would in turn be useful for students of rural areas. Her concern was addressed by Dr. Nandita Goswami who informed the student of various opportunities and possibilities of the subjects (Arts stream) also made available by the college. Other than that, she opened her of different career options in practical fields.

like General Nursing or applying in paramedics etc. Kalyani Das and Moumiki Deka who had doubts about choosing the subjects and career option after HS and Graduation were addressed by Dr Bipul Kalita. Another student named Anshika Talukdar had with a query on the makeup artist course its importance and fees was addressed by Dr. Nandini Goswami, who explained her on the growing importance of the makeup artist course in today's age. She also informed us usually / generally Rs 25000 - 30000, for professional makeup artist course in cities like Guwahati. Other than that the college currently is not providing the makeup artist course. Lately Chayanita Das of B.A 6th semester inquired about the Universities she could apply for a "master's degree".

Dr Bipul Kalita informed her of (almost) all the universities within the Assam (mostly governmental) like Gauhati University, Tezpur University, Dibrugarh University, Assam University and Bodoland University. If interested she could also apply for universities outside Assam and list for their entrance for eg. Delhi University, Sikkim

University, Nebu etc. The personal career counselling ended at a positive note by answering all of the five applicants / students queries and an attempt made to solve their issues.
