REPORT

A day-long workshop on ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION SKILL for undergraduate level students is Organised by IQAC, Barbhag College on 21.12.2021 at the Conference Hall of Barbhag College. The main objective of the course was to develop the language skill of students learning English as a 2nd language. The workshop was organised in view of the poor communication skill of the undergraduate level students in the English language. One of the main objectives of the workshop was to understand the learning gaps of these students and to find out some practicable measures to reduce the gaps. Dr. Anupam Dutta, Associate Professor of the department of English, took part in the workshop as the resource person. Mr. Ajit Kumar Sarma, Associate professor of the department of English, chaired the technical sessions.

Earlier, Mrs. Nivedita Goswami, Principal i/c, Barbhag College formally inaugurated the workshop. Delivering her inaugural speech, Mrs. Goswami underlined the importance of English language competence of the students in the twenty first century globalised world.

The workshop was conducted in two technical sessions. Technical session 1 focused on pronunciation and vocabulary of English. Dr. Dutta explained with demonstration how accurate pronunciation is very important for proper comprehension of spoken English. He then went on to elaborate on the correct modes of pronunciation of different sounds (pure vowels, diphthongs and consonants) of English. In the vocabulary section, the resource person talked to the learners about the different easy ways to increase one's active vocabulary. The session was concluded with a hands-on oral and written practice of the different aspects of pronunciation and vocabulary of English.

The second technical session focused on writing and speaking with fluency. Dr. Dutta gave some useful tips to the participants as to how the fluency of speech in the language can be enhanced. He also gave them some practice lessons on writing skill and pointed out the errors made by the participants. He engaged the participants in a lively collaborative writing session.

Altogether 71 students of different disciplines actively participated in the workshop. Some practical sessions were imparted to the students to make the sessions enjoyable and fruitful. The participants showed enthusiasm and happiness in the session-wise progression of the workshop. Learner-oriented approach of the resource person and tactical use of audio-visuals enhanced the effectiveness of the workshop. Before the close of the day's proceeding, Dr. Chandan Kalita, Assistant Professor, Department of English, offered vote-of-thanks. The workshop successfully concluded and the trainees expressed their satisfaction at the outcome of the workshop.
